The "White Elephant" sale opened

The "White Elephant" sale yesterday at 41 West Forty-fifth street under the able direction of Mrs. Ida V. Enders and Mrs. Jessie Baskerville. The house has been donated for this sale and the hours of sale during the week are from 3 to 10. But quite half an hour before the hour set there were an hour before the hour set there were campaigned and paid for 139.56.51 Received through the Schulle Cigar Stores gifts of bric-a-brac, flowering plants, bits of household furniture, electric devices, lamps, fans: in a word, almost everything that one would need in the adornment of a home is on view, or rather was on view, for there were so many sales that the stock will have to be quickly replenished.

On the figor above are displayed clothing for men and women, shoes, hats, shawls, and very good quality are these things. It would be possible for a man to dreas himself from head to toe from the stock, and perhaps the same holds good for women. There was a crowd of purchasers of both sexes on this figor.

Stock Goes Rapidly.

The ladies whose clever idea this was for the purpose of raising money for THE SUN Tobacco Fund and another war STOP FATHER O'CONOR'S PLAY. relief seemed to be a bit frightened by their success yesterday. "If the sales go as fast as they have started we won't have any stock left by Thursday." Accordingly anybody having an ele-phant on his hands may help these war workers and incidentally send more smokes to the soldiers. The goods should be sent to 47 West Forty-fifth street, in programme as an additional attraction for the evenings. The artists who will appear are Mrs. Enders, Miss Leonora Sparkes of the Metropolitan Opera Company, Miss Blanche Duffield, formerly of "Princess Pat"; Mme. de Cerdis, Miss Jane Kerley and Mrs. Germaine Clerget who is a good friend of the smoke fund and has sung for it before.

Smoke fund night is set for next Friday in Century Grove, atop the Cen-tury Theatre, the managers of whichtury Theatre, the managers of which—William Elliott, F. Ray Comstock and attention to the details. The tobacco fund will receive a share of the "gate" and will benefit in other ways from the entertainment. It is going to be a genuine success, for no sooner had the date been settled upon than requests for reservations began coming in, and the nerervations began coming in, and the per-sons who wish to share the fun had better get in touch with the Grove manage-

The personnel of "The Midnight Revue" are to be in the list of entertainers and the Three Little Maids—Sybil Car-men, Arline Chase and Frances Pritchard—are rehearing a new feature for the sole joy of doing something new for the fund. Other prominent oadway stars have volunteered to help start and keep the fun at a furious clip.
The Grove will be open at 10:30 for supper parties and general dancing and the performance will begin promptly at 11.

Patriotie Entertain ent.

On Thursday night Mrs. Laura B. Prisk will give a patriotic entertainment at 122 East 125th street, at the conclusion of which a collection is to be taken for The Sun Tobacco Fund. Mrs. Prisk has been a loyal friend of the smoke fund for some time, and she is arranging to make the Thursday night performance particularly attractive. There will be patriotic singing by a chorus of childre a war speaker of prominence and other attractive features. The number given above refers to the house occupied by the Harlem Patriotic League and dedi-cated to the service of the Government during the duration of the war. On the sporting page 15

On the sporting page to-day the ideas of the golf committee of the Ridgewood Country Club, Ridgewood, N. J., are given prominence. These are intended to interest golf clubs in this vicinity to start a concerted effort to boost the smoke fund. The object, concretely, is to start a series of matches whereby the

The Sun Tobacco Fund could do so with a shoal of documents, letters written in by mothers who have heard from their sons of the comfort and solace received from their share of the smokes the fund has sent abroad. These letters are frequently accompanied by checks to buy more tobacco.

"My son," wrote Mrs. Jonathan Bulkley, "has received great comfort from The Sun tobacco, and I am glad to subscribe to your worthy cause."

Many Mothers Write.

This note of appreciation reached The Sun Tobacco Fund in the early days of the year; it has been echoed and received by mothers ever since from all parts of the country, and these letters, simple and heartfelt, are among the exquisite things that the smoke fund has brought to its founders and all who have the happiness to be associated with it.

No, indeed, there is no "perhaps" to attenuate the belief that the smoke fund must feel, in the face of such evidence, that the mothers of this land are grateful for the work it 4s doing.

WAR LABOR BOARD TO ACT THROUGH AGENTS

Will Sit as Appellate Court When Local Effort Fails.

Special Despatch to THE SUN. WASHINGTON, May 13 .- The National War Labor Board announced to-night the result of its recent consideration of the general problem of labor controversies and defined the methods to be employed hereafter in the settlement of lisputes, together with the mechanism which will be brought into operation in handling such controversies.

Under the plans of the labor board a sub-committee will be appointed, fully empowered to act for the board in every local controversy. There will be ap-pointed also permanent local commit-tees in all cities and districts to act in cases located within their jurisdiction The War Labor Board's plan also con-templates the investigation of labor dis-putes by trained field agents sent out from the headquarters of the board in Vashington. Hereafter under the form of procedure defined by the War Labor Board to-day only when the subordinate sub-committees, territorial committees or field agents strike a snag in their negotia-tions for labor peace which appears to hem to be insurmountable will the War Labor Board act. In such cases the War Labor Board sitting as a board of arbitration will decide the controversy and make the award.

Also in compliance with the Presi-dent's proclamation of April 8 the War Labor Board will sit in appellate juris smoke fund. The object, concretely, is to start a series of matches whereby the diction in cases where principles established by the various clubs will be lished by the President in his proclamation have been violated, where an award made by the board has not been convenient dates, the gallery, &c., and every care taken that the smoke fund shall realize largely by the games. stamps this sentence as inadequate.

For being absent from his command without leave and remaining away from January 8 to March 1 Private John L. Pollanger of Bridgeton, a member of Headquarters Company, 114th Infantry, will spend four years at hard labor.

Garrison Prisoner Patrick Donegan of Paterson and Private Raymond Mattade of Paterson will each serve three years at hard labor and forfeit all pay during that time, and Private Thomas F. Roach of Orange will serve one year at hard labor and forfeit all pay after being found guilty by a general court-martial board. Donegan, who is a member of Company D, 111th Machine Gun Bat-talion, was accused of striking Private James Sheridan of Company B while the

He was ar-rested at the cantonment on March 28 and tried by court-martial. Witnesses testified Flentje had said President Wilson was incapable of standing the responsibilities put upon him by the war; that this country had him by the war; that this country had no business entering the war and that Germany could have won if the United 3.00 States had kept out. Referring to the Seventy-sixth Division here, witnesses said, he declared that "if the German army ever saw this hunch' they would laugh themselves to death."

TRIES TO RIDE STEED RIGHT INTO CAPITOL

Albany Man Plans to Give Congress Some Horse Sense.

Special Despatch to THE SUN.

Special Despatch to THE SUN.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Mounted on a flery black horse whose shoulders and thighs showed unmistakably signs of many years of livery duty, a wild eyed man to-day plunged up through the Capitol grounds and began the ascent of the western steps. So rapid was his progress up the stairway that he was half way to the western portal before the sleepy Capitol policemen awakened to the threatened danger of a cavalry attack. They counter attacked in force and halted the invader and his charger at the second terrace. Then:

"What's the big idea?" demanded bluecoat No. 1.

"I've come to bring a little horse sense o Congress," announced the mysterious to Congre chevalier. "Well, you've got a lot of confidence to ride right in here uninvited," replied the policeman.
"Sure I have," asserted the rider.

one First Lieutenant, were found guilty of infractions of army regulations to-day. Severe sentences were inflicted by divisional court-martial boards.

First Lieut. Arthur D. Olmsted of Newark, N. J., a member of the 112th New Jersey Heavy Field Artillery, will be confined to the limits of his regimental area for three months as a result of being found guilty on five specifications and partly guilty on a sixth. He was accused of borrowing $177 from Private Thomas Ingham, another artilleryman, of 512 East Twenty-third street, Paterson, on different occasions and falling to nay any part of it back.

"Sure I have," asserted the rider.

"I'm chock full of confidence and the horse is chock full of sense and between us we're going to do Congress a whole lot of good."

The rider was persuaded that the permitted himself to be led to the office of the Capitain of Police, while the steed was tethered in the Capitol park.

To the capitain the man explained that he had engaged the horse at a Georgetown livery stable for a sight-seeing tour. The idea of bringing horse sense to Congress had struck him after he had started, so he had posted straight for the Capitol to execute his mission. for the Capitol to execute his mission. He was transferred to the District of Columbia health authorities for observation. The horse after cropping two or three bushels of rich Capitol park grass was ridden to his humble home by the
